

Department of Family Resource Management

M.A.

Programme Specific Outcome:

Family Resource Management is the process of using available resources efficiently to achieve goals. Utilizing resources properly, making life more systematic, increasing efficiency in work situation, acquire knowledge regarding management process in each field and achieve a better standard of living